MOMENTS on the road

The Alps & Alsace (11 Days)

ON THE ROAD EXPERIENCES

BACK ROADS | HIDDEN GEMS

We love road journeys. They are by far our favourite way of traveling. And when we're in the mood for spoiling ourselves with fine food and delightful hotels besides the sheer pleasure of being on some of the world's best roads, we turn to Europe!

Few regions within Europe offer as much variety of landscapes and cultures and roads as the one that you will be traveling through: southern Germany, the Italian Dolomites, the Swiss Alps and French Alsace. These regions are a treasure trove of hidden gems.

We thank you for giving us the opportunity to share with you we've come to love ourselves so much...now turn the page to see what we have in store for you. May every day be filled with colourful anticipation and unforgettable memories.

Yours truly,

Day 1 You arrive in the Bavarian capital

Arrive in Munich as per your own arrangements. Our team will be there to meet you, and to transfer you to your hotel. After checking in, we will arrange the day's itinerary to suit your interests.

As the cultural capital of Bavaria, Munich is home to many museums and interesting sights, but is perhaps best known for Oktoberfest, a celebration of Bavarian culture – and the region's beer! If your trip falls in September or early October, you will be able to join in the revelry. At other times of year our local host will help you to experience the best of Bavaria in other ways!

Day 2 Across Austria and the Alps to San Cassiano in the heart of the Dolomites

This morning we will complete the car handover formalities, then you will be able to get straight on the road in Europe!

Today's drive is a straightforward and scenic one south from Munich and across western Austria to Italy. Your destination is San Cassiano, a small village in the heart of the spectacular Dolomite Mountains.

The Dolomites are located in the Italian region of South Tyrol. Until World War I, the region was part of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, and – even today – many inhabitants feel themselves to be more Austrian than Italian. South Tyrol combines alpine ruggedness with

Mediterranean flair, a truly beguiling combination, as you will discover over the next few days... Day 3 Drive over four of Italy's most spectacular passes, picnic in an Alpine meadow, or visit the hotel spa - the choice is yours

Today is yours to spend as you wish. Drive the spectacular Sella Ring, a route of four high passes surrounding the Sella Massif; picnic in an Alpine meadow; take a hike and soak up the region's breathtaking scenery, or stroll San Cassiano's cobbled streets. And there's always the option of taking it easy at your hotel, with its excellent spa and Michelinstarred restaurant.

Our team will be on hand to help you make the most of your day here, however you choose to spend it.

Day 4 We make our second stop in fascinating South Tyrol

Today you will enjoy a short but scenic drive through beautiful South Tryol to Merano. We will choose your route depending on weather conditions at the time of your trip, but on fine days you will be treated to stunning views, even as you leave the high mountains behind.

Although Merano's mild climate has long drawn visitors, today, the town is particularly well known for its thermal spas and Art Nouveau architecture. The town is a centre of Tirolese culture, and makes a wonderful place to discover South Tyrol beyond the Dolomites.

Your hotel – with its awardwinning spa – is located high on a hillside above Merano itself.

Day 5 Discover South Tyrol beyond the Dolomites...

For your second day in South Tyrol, we would like to give you a number of options to enjoy. Here are some of them:

- A visit to Ötzi, the "Ice Man", a well-preserved mummy of a man who lived around 3300 BC. He is kept at icy temperatures in the South Tyrol Museum of Archeology... an amazing exhibition for those interested in history!
- A lunch at an Alpine restaurant, high above Merano, surrounded by beautiful summer meadows and forests....will require a bit of hiking!
- An excursion to downtown Merano for shopping of both local and international brands and a stroll through local markets
- An early-evening wine tasting to sample the many exquisite wines that South Tyrol produces

(subject to a minimum of six participants).

• Or, why not stay at the hotel, relax, read a book, enjoy a spa and the tranquil, Alpine surroundings?

Not all of these activities can be easily combined. We will discuss these options further during the journey.

Day 6 Across the magnificent Stelvio Pass

Today you will leave South Tyrol and cross the border into Switzerland.

Weather permitting, you can look forward to a spectacular driving day since you will cross four beautiful passes: the Stelvio, the Umbrail, the Ofen and the Albula.

Keen motorists will be particularly excited to drive over the Stelvio, since it is - for many reasons - one of the best known Alpine passes.

Once across Umbrail Pass, you will enter into the Swiss Canton of Grisons, Grisons is Switzerland's largest canton, and one of the most traditional parts of the country, as well as the only canton where Romansch is an official language.

Here, we will skirt the most touristy resorts - including St Moritz and Davos - heading instead for Brigels in western Grisons, where you will stay in a lovely hotel, reminiscent of a comfortable Swiss chalet.

Day 7 Cross three of Switzerland's most reowned passes to Gstaad, in the heart of the Swiss Alps

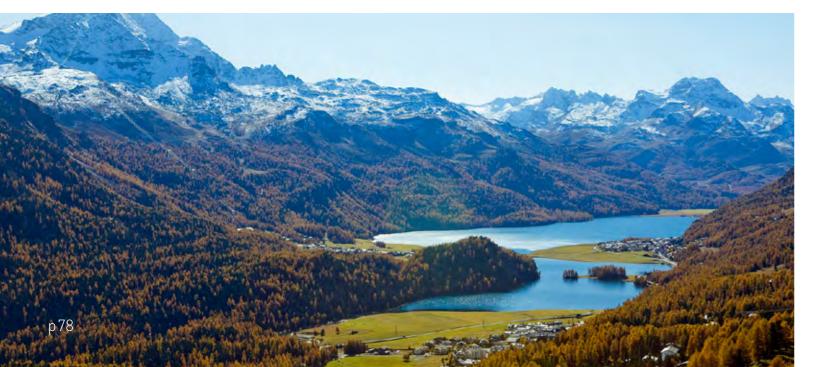

Even after days amongst some of the Europe's most spectacular mountains, today's scenery will take your breath away.

On the drive from Brigels to Gstaad you will cross two passes - first the Oberalp (2044m), then the Furka (2427m) - before stopping for lunch atop the third, Grimselpass.

After the morning's high mountains, you will descend into gentler, more rolling country as you drive around two lakes. Brienzersee and Thunersee. The lakeside scenery is lovely, but the traffic may seem much busier once we leave the mountains behind.

is particularly charming. We have selected one of the village's finest hotels for your stay.

Day 8 Glaciers, horse-drawn carriages and fresh mountain air

Today you will start the day in the heart of the mountains, by riding the Glacier 3000 cablecar up Scex Rouge.

Here, at almost 3000m elevation, you will be able to walk along the spectacular Peak Walk suspension bridge for views of the Matterhorn, Eiger, Monch and Jungfrau. On clear days, it's possible to see as far away as Mont Blanc, 60km away.

Later, back on earth again, you will be able to experience the region's other natural beauty, Lake Lauenen. Horse-drawn carriages will take you to the lake, where another surprise awaits.

For lunch and dinner, you will experience typical and delicious Swiss food.

Day 9 Into one of France's most charming regions, Alsace

Today's drive is a straightforward highway drive from Switzerland into France. exchanging the mighty Alps for Alsace's gently rolling hills. For more than three centuries. Alsace was the subject of much wrangling between French and Germanic rulers, changing hands several times. Today, the region retains a unique mixture of French and German culture. as well as its own language, Alsatian, which is closely related to Swiss German.

En route to Barr, we will take time to visit Colmar. the "capital of Alsatian wine" and one of the region's prettiest towns, with cobblestoned streets lined with halftimbered Medieval and early Renaissance buildings.

From Colmar it is a short drive further north to your hotel for the next two nights in Barr.

This evening we have a treat in store for your dinner. Your host, a local woman named Tatjana, is a chef by training. Normally, she runs an event catering business, but on special occasions - such as tonight she also welcomes guests into her home for dinner.

Day 10 Explore Alsace's historic villages, drive on the region's beautiful back roads. and discover delicious Alsatian cuisine

Today, your guide will show you the best of Alsace. The day will start out with a drive along the region's "Route de Vin". (Alsace is particularly known for producing excellent Riesling and Gewurztraminer.) We will stop in one of the region's most beautiful villages, Riquewihr.

Later in the morning, we have arranged for you to visit a workshop that is renowned worldwide for its exquisite marquetry. In the afternoon, our local guide will arrange the itinerary to fit the group's interests.

For your farewell dinner, you will enjoy an Alsatian gourmet menu by Chef Thierry Schwartz.

Day 11 And now for enjoying your cars... On the autobahn back to Frankfurt!

Today will be your last day on this journey. The drive will be a straightforward one, across the border into Germany and thence to Frankfurt – a final chance to enjoy some autobahn driving.

You may have to begin your journey home, but why not stay a little longer if you can?

Wherever your onward journey will lead you, we hope that you will set out filled with beautiful memories of your time on the road in Europe. Bon voyage!

Choice of Cars

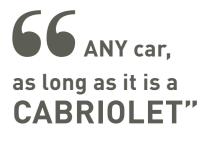

A cabriolet is included in your package price.

We strongly encourage you to enjoy this journey in an opentop car because the natural beauty, the fresh and scented air, the glorious mountains, the vineyards, and the many gorgeous roads are best enjoyed when wind is in your air and you can fully immerse yourself in the enjoyment of being on the road!

Of course, if you prefer a coupe or sedan of the same class or something a little or a lot more exotic, we're happy to offer you upgrade options.

Local Cuisine

While this itinerary is not one of our 'Foodie'-themed journeys, we do believe that each one of our journeys should introduce you not only to hidden gems of cultural and scenic beauty, but that sampling local cuisines is also a must.

We will therefore arrange for you 'tasting menus' such that you can try out a variety of specialties during each meal.

While alcoholic beverages are not included in the price, on certain occasions, when we believe that a particular dish is best enjoyed when combined with a local drink, we will make it part of the experience!

For private journeys, we can, of course, tailor the meal experience to your taste (and budget).

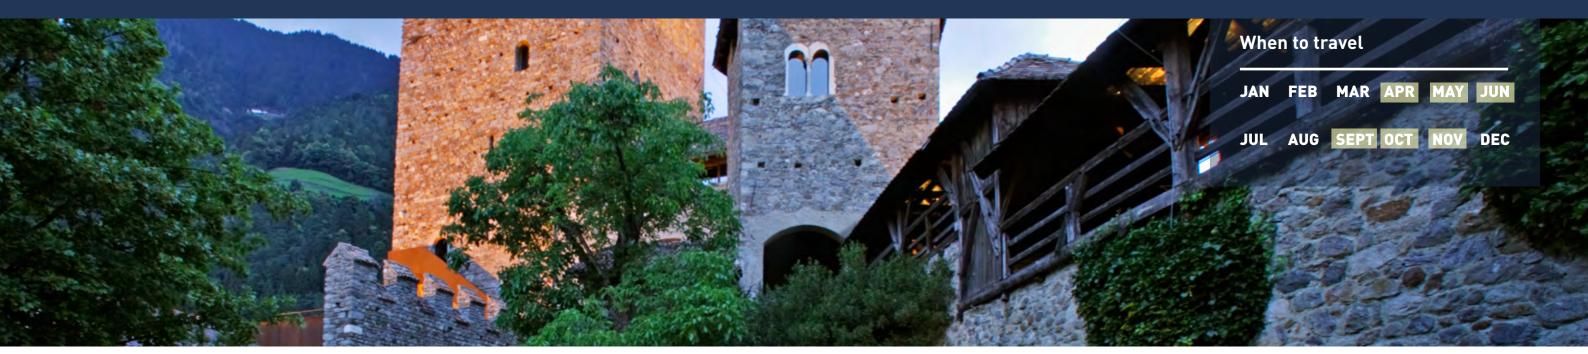

What's Included / When to travel...

Generally speaking, our journey packages and prices are allinclusive. Once you've paid and you arrive at the starting point, you really won't have to take out your wallet again except for liquids (alcoholic drinks and petrol) and presents to take home
